

Additional Certifications/Training

- SOFFI® method - an integrated approach to supporting oral feeding in preterm infants and in infants struggling to eat for any reason, both in the NICU and in the Early Intervention setting.
- NOMAS (Neonatal Oral-Motor Assessment Scale) a tool for the evaluation of neonatal sucking patterns in pre-term and term infants
- Hanen certified SLP for supporting parents and caregivers of children with language delays or autism in birth to 5-year range:
  - ‘It Takes Two to Talk”, for parents of young children (birth to 5 years of age) who have been identified as having a language delay.
- The AEIOU approach- Acceptance, Exposure, Independence, Observation and Understanding – is a responsive feeding approach that offers a highly successful method for integrated treatment of infants and young children with mild to complex etiologies.
- PECS (Picture Exchange Communication System) is a unique alternative/augmentative communication system that has successfully been implemented worldwide with thousands of learners of all ages who have various cognitive, physical and communication challenges. Certified in Level 1 & 2
- The Get Permission Approach developed by Marsha Dunn Klein - a responsive, sensitive, and supportive approach to feeding. Get Permission strategies lovingly support children and their families through compassionate treatment for pediatric feeding disorders.